- (1) To maintain and improve the harmonious relations and settled conditions of employment between the Employer and the Union;
- (2) To recognize the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiations in all matters pertaining to working conditions, employment, service, etc.;
- (3) To encourage efficiency in operation;
- (4) To promote the morale, well-being and security of all the employees in the bargaining unit represented by the Union.

1.02 It is now desirable that methods of bargaining and matters pertaining to the working conditions of employees in the bargaining unit of the Union be set forth herein.

ARTICLE 2 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

2.01 The Union recognizes and acknowledges that all management rights and prerogatives are vested exclusively with the Residence and without limiting the generality of the foregoing it is the exclusive function of the Residence:

- (a) to determine and establish standards and procedures for the care, welfare, safety and comfort of the residents of the Residence;
- (b) to maintain order, discipline, efficiency and in connection therewith to establish and enforce reasonable rules, regulations, policies and practices from time to time to be observed by its employees; such rules will be posted on the employee's Bulletin Board with a copy supplied to the Union Committee. The Residence reserves the right to amend or introduce new rules from time to time, copies of which are to be posted on the Bulletin Board with copies to be supplied to the Union Committee;
- (c) to hire, transfer, layoff, recall, promote, demote, classify, assign duties, discharge, suspend, or otherwise discipline employees for just cause, provided that a claim of discriminatory transfer, promotion, demotion, or classification or a claim that an employee has been discharged or disciplined without just cause, may be the subject of a grievance and dealt with as hereinafter provided;

- (d) to have the right to plan, direct and control the work of the employees and the operations of the Residence;
- (e) to exercise the regular and customary management functions of an Employer except those rights, powers, functions or authorities which are specifically abridged or modified by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 - SCOPE AND RECOGNITION

3.01 Bargaining Unit

The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees, as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent for all its employees at Rideau Place Retirement Residence, save and except supervisors, persons above the rank of supervisor, confidential secretary bookkeeper, registered and graduate nurses.

3.02 The Employer undertakes that it will not enter into any other agreement or contract with those employees for whom the Union has bargaining rights either individually or collectively which will conflict with any of the provisions of this Agreement.

3.03 The word "employee" or "employees" as used in this Agreement shall mean the employees referred to in Article 3.01 of this Agreement which employees are within the bargaining unit and for whom the Union is recognized as the bargaining agent.

3.04 In representing an employee or group of employees, an elected or appointed representative of the Union shall be the Spokesperson. In order that this may be carried out the Union will supply the Employer with the names of its officers. Likewise, the Employer shall supply the Union with a list of its supervisory personnel with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

3.05 Work of the Bargaining Unit

Persons whose jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit, except:

The Union agrees to consider requests for exclusions from this Article, persons who are performing community service on a voluntary basis. Such requests will not be unreasonably denied.

The Union agrees to exclude from this provision persons hired directly by Residents to provide private duty nursing care provided that such arrangements do not cause the loss of any bargaining unit position or the reduction in hours of any bargaining unit position.

3.06 Definition of Employee

The Employer shall deduct from every employee any dues, initiation fees, or assessments levied by the Union on its members.

5.02 The Employer shall deduct from the pay of an employee an amount equal to the current union dues, initiation fees, or assessments levied by the Union. Such deductions shall be made on each bi-weekly pay. The Employer will recognize a Union Grievance Committee which shall consist of a Chief Steward, and up to three (3) members elected or appointed from the bargaining unit, not more than two (2) of which Committee members shall meet with the Employer at any one time. Therefore, no Union Steward shall leave her work without first obtaining the permission of her supervisor, which permission shall be given within one (1) hour, and will not be unreasonably withheld.

The employee shall have the option of having her Steward present during such discussion. The supervisor shall reply to the employee, giving the answer to the question or complaint within seven (7) working days from the date it was submitted.

Step 2

If further action is then to be taken, then within seven (7) working days after the decision is given in Step 1, the employee, who may request the assistance of her Steward, shall submit the grievance in writing to the General Manager. A meeting will then be held between the Managing Director or her designated representative and the employee within seven (7) working days. It is understood that at such a meeting the General Manager or her designated representative may have such counsel and assistance as she may desire and that the employee may have her Steward and that the Union Representative of the Union may also be present at the request of either the employee or the Employer. Such Representative shall have access to the Employer's premises in order to investigate and assist in the settlement of a grievance, but will give reasonable advance notice to the General Manager prior to attending on the premises. The decision of the General Manager or her designated representative shall be given in writing within seven (7) working days following the meeting.

Step 3

If further action is then to be taken, then within seven (7) working days after the decision is given in Step 2, the employee, a meeting will then be held between the Director and Union Representative within seven (7) working days. It is understood that at such a meeting Director counsel and assistance as she may desire and that a Representative of the Union shall also be present. The decision of the Director shall be given in writing within seven (7) working days following the meeting.

11.01 At each Step of the grievance procedure an employee shall have the right to be present.

a) Any of the time allowances above may be extended only by the written mutual consent of the parties;

b) Technical Objection to Grievance

The Arbitration Board shall have the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in its hearing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to enable the giving of a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

11.03 Working days for purposes of this Collective Agreement shall mean consecutive calendar days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and the fixed paid holidays specified in Article 21.01

11.04 When a grievance is submitted in writing by either the Employer, or the employee, or the Union, it shall clearly set forth the name of the grievor(s) (except where the grievance is a policy grievance), the nature of the grievance, the remedies sought, and the clause or clauses of this Agreement said to be violated, all in clear and concise terms.

11.05 Mediation

By mutual consent, the parties may agree to use the services of a mediator. The parties agree to share equally the cost of the mediation.

11.06 The Employer shall supply the necessary facilities for the grievance procedure meeting.

11.07 Failure of the Grievor or the Union to process a grievance to the next step in the grievance procedure within the time limit specified shall not be deemed to have prejudiced the Union on any future identical grievance.

11.08 Grievance and Arbitration Provisions

An employee who is a Union Steward, the Chief Union Steward, a member of the Union Grievance Committee or who is asserting a grievance, shall be entitled to time off with pay and without loss of benefits or seniority when acting in those capacities in the grievance and arbitration procedures up to but not including arbitration set out in this Agreement. The Employer is not required to pay for more than two (2) employees on any given day under the provision of this Article. If more than two (2) employees are absent under the provisions of this Article, the Employer shall pay the two (2) employees with the most seniority.

11.09 Policy Grievance

Where a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs, or where a group of employees or the Union has a grievance, Step 1 of this Article may be by-passed.

11.10 Union May Institute Grievance

The Union and its Representative shall have the right to originate a grievance on behalf of an employee, or group of employees and to seek adjustment with the Employer in the manner provided in the Grievance Procedure. Such a grievance shall commence at Step 2.

11.11 Replies in Writing

Replies to grievance stating reasons shall be in writing at all stages.

11.12 Employer Grievance

The Employer may institute a grievance, consisting of an allegation of a general misinterpretation or violation by the Union, or any employee covered by this Agreement, in writing, dated, and signed, by forwarding a written statement of said grievance to the Secretary of the Local of the Union, provided it is presented within ten (10) working days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have originated or occurred. A meeting will then be held between the Residence and the Union Grievance Committee within ten (10) days. Two (2) members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. When submitting the grievance, the Residence shall suggest at least three (3) alternative days, and reasonable times and places at which the meeting may be held. Failure to hold the meeting shall be deemed to be a denial of the grievance. The Secretary of the Union shall give its decision in writing within ten (10) days after the meeting. Failure to render such decision shall be deemed to be a denial of the grievance. Failing settlement, a grievance may be referred to arbitration by the Residence by written notice of intent delivered in accordance with Step 3 of the grievance procedure.

11.13 Union Policy Grievance

The Union may institute a grievance, consisting of an allegation of a general misinterpretation or a violation by the Employer of this Agreement, in writing at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, provided that it is presented within ten (10) working days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have originated or occurred. However, it is expressly understood that the provisions of this clause may not be used to institute a grievance directly affecting an employee or employees which such employee or employees could themselves initiate and the regular grievance procedure shall not be thereby bypassed.

11.14 Where it appears that two (2) or more employees have the same grievance, the Union may process the grievances simultaneously and consecutively on all levels of the grievance procedure, if possible, subject to all applicable provisions under the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 12 - ARBITRATION

- a) Both parties to this Agreement agree that any dispute or grievance concerning the interpretation or alleged violation of this Agreement, which has been properly carried through all the steps of the grievance procedure outlined in Article 11 above and which has not been settled, may be referred to a Board of Arbitration at the written request of either of the parties hereto;
- b) Where a Board of Arbitration is used, each party shall within ten (10) days of the written request, provide the name of his nominee to the Board of Arbitration. The two (2) nominees shall then select a third person to act as Chair of the Board of Arbitration within thirty (30) days. If unable to agree upon a Chairperson, either party may request the Minister of Labour to appoint one.
- c) The Employer and the Union agree that by mutual written agreement of the parties, a Sole Arbitrator may be substituted for a Board of Arbitration. The appointment and jurisdiction of the Arbitrator shall conform to the provisions of this Article. Each party shall pay one-half (1/2) of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator and any costs of the place of hearing of such arbitration if and when the necessity arises.

- 12.02 No person may be appointed as an Arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the particular grievance concerned, unless mutually agreed upon.
- 12.03 Each of the parties shall pay its own expenses including pay for witnesses and the expense of its own Arbitrator and one-half of the expenses and fees of the Chairman.
- 12.04 The time limits fixed in the arbitration procedure may be extended by consent of the parties only.
- 12.05 It is agreed and understood that the Arbitration Board shall have no authority to alter, modify or annul any part of this Agreement. However, the Arbitration Board shall have authority to substitute such other penalty for the discharge or discipline, as the Arbitrator Board deems just and reasonable in all circumstances.
- 12.06 The Board of Arbitration shall have no power to alter, add to, subtract from, modify or amend this Agreement in order to give any decision that is inconsistent with it. The Board of Arbitration may dispose of a grievance in any manner which it deems just and equitable in the circumstances. The decision of the majority of the members of the Board of Arbitration shall be the decision of the Board, but if there is no majority the decision of the Chairman shall govern.
- 12.07 All agreements reached under the grievance and arbitration procedures between the Employer and its representatives, and the Union and its representatives, will be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the employee(s) involved.
- 12.08 At any stage of the grievance procedure, including arbitration, the parties may have the assistance of the employee or employees concerned as a witness, and all reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties or the Board of Arbitration to have access to any part of Rideau Place Retirement Residence to view any working conditions which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance, at a reasonable time and so as not to interfere with the function of Rideau Place Retirement Residence.

12.09 The foregoing shall not preclude either party to this Agreement from exercising their right under Section 49 of the present Ontario Labour Relations Act as amended from time to time.

12.10 Clarification on Decision

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of a decision of the Board of Arbitration, either party may apply to the Chairperson to reconvene the Board to clarify the decision.

ARTICLE 13 - DISCHARGE, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

13.01 Suspension/Discharge Grievance

Whenever the Employer or her authorized agent may deem it necessary to warn an employee, in a manner indicating that suspension or dismissal may follow any further infraction or may follow if such employee fails to bring her work up to a required standard by a given date, the Employer shall, within five (5) days thereafter, give a copy of such warning to the Union, with a copy to the employee involved. The Union agrees and it is understood that the Residence is not required to warn an employee prior to her dismissal or suspension where, in the Employer's absolute discretion, the employee has committed an infraction which warrants immediate dismissal or suspension.

13.02 Prior to the imposition of a suspension or discharge, an employee who has completed probation shall be given the reason in the presence of her Steward or Union Representative if at the Residence. If a Steward or Union Representative is not on the premises, the General Manager shall advise such person when next on the premises.

13.03 Such employee and the Union shall be advised promptly in writing by the General Manager of the reason for such suspension or discharge.

13.04 In the event an employee who has completed her probationary period is suspended or discharged from employment and the employee feels that the suspension or discharge is unjust, the case may then be taken up as a grievance.

13.05 Such grievance shall proceed directly to Step 2 of the grievance procedure and must be presented in writing, dated, and signed within five (5) days after the notice of the discharge was given, or within five (5) days after the employee ceases to work for the Employer, whichever is the earlier.

13.06 Such special grievances may be settled by confirming the Employer's action in dismissing the employee, or by reinstating the employee in a manner which is just and equitable in the opinion of the conferring parties, or the Board of Arbitration, as the case may be.

13.07 Right to Have Steward Present

Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall so notify the employee in advance of the interview in order that the employee may contact her Union Steward to be present at the interview.

13.08 Clearing of Employee Record

The personnel record or file of an employee shall be cleared after a period of fifteen (15) months, except in the case of resident abuse which shall be eighteen (18) months from date of any disciplinary action having been taken by the Employer, to remove any indication of such action provided there are no similar incidents.

13.09 Personnel Records

An employee shall have the right to have access to her personnel record or file, on the employees own time, during normal business hours. An employee shall make the request in writing to the General Manager or designate. It is understood and agreed that such request shall be honoured within one (1) business day (unless due to unforeseen circumstances) of the said request.

ARTICLE 14 - PROBATION

14.01 The probationary period for all employees will be 450 hours worked or six (6) months whichever comes first.

14.02 On or before the expiry date of the probationary period, the Residence will confirm to the employee the decision to:

- (a) confirm her appointment as having completed her probation; or
- (b) with the approval of the Union, extend the probationary period with mutual consent of the employee; or
- (c) terminate the employee.

ARTICLE 15 - SENIORITY

15.01 Seniority is defined as the length of service in the bargaining unit. Part-time employees will accrue seniority on the basis of one year's seniority for each 1725 hours worked in the bargaining unit as of the last date of hire. It is understood that a part-time employee cannot accrue more than one year's seniority in a one year calendar period. Seniority shall operate on a bargaining-unit-wide basis.

15.02 Seniority Lists

A seniority list shall be provided to the Union in January and June of each year, showing the employees' names, start date and seniority accumulated in hours.

15.03 Loss of Seniority

An employee shall lose all seniority and shall be deemed to have quit the employ of the Residence for any of the following reasons:

- (a) voluntary resignation or retirement;
- (b) discharge for cause, and the discharge is not reversed through the grievance procedure;
- (c) layoff in excess of twenty-four (24) months;
- (d) absence due to illness for twenty-four (24) months;
- (e) absence for three (3) consecutive working days without notifying the Residence, unless a satisfactory reason is given, in which case such employee shall be deemed to have quit the employ of the Residence without notice;
- (f) failure to notify the Residence of intention to return to work within forty-eight (48) hours of being notified of recall by registered mail or telephone; or failure to return to work within seven (7) calendar days after being notified of recall. Registered mail sent to the employee's most recent address on her employment file shall be interpreted as proper notice. For purposes of recall it shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep the Residence informed of her current address and telephone number.

15.04 Transfer and Seniority Outside the Bargaining Unit

No employee shall be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without her written consent. An Employee who consents in writing to be transferred and/or promoted to a position outside of the bargaining unit shall not accumulate seniority within the bargaining unit during such transfer and/or promotion. In the event that the employee is returned by the Employer to a position in the bargaining unit within twelve (12) calendar months of the transfer and/or promotion, the employee shall be credited with the seniority held immediately prior to the transfer and/or promotion and shall resume accumulation from the date of their return to the bargaining unit. An employee not returned to the bargaining unit within twelve (12) calendar months from the transfer and/or promotion shall forfeit all bargaining unit seniority.

ARTICLE 16 - PROMOTIONS AND STAFF CHANGES

a) Job Posting

When a vacancy occurs or a new position is created within the bargaining unit, within ten (10) days of the vacancy, the Employer shall post a notice on the Employer's main bulletin boards with a copy to the Union. The position shall be posted for a period of ten (10) working days so that interested employees can apply. The name of the successful applicant shall be posted on the Employer's bulletin board.

b) Temporary Vacancies

Temporary vacancies anticipated to be less than six (6) weeks duration shall not be posted, unless otherwise agreed between the Employer and the Union. The Employer will endeavour to distribute shifts as equally as possible.

c) Temporary Job Postings

A vacancy which occurs for more than six (6) weeks will be posted stating that the position is limited and shall indicate the estimated duration of the limited job. In any event, the limited job shall not exceed six (6) months. Upon termination of a limited job, the employee filling the vacancy shall be returned to the classification and job location in which he/she last worked. In the event that a part-time employee is the successful applicant, the said employee shall retain his/her part-time status during the limited full-time period. An employee filling a temporary vacancy of six (6) weeks or longer duration shall not bid on any other temporary posting until the end of his/her temporary position.

- d) Until the vacancy is filled resulting from the job posting provisions, the Employer may fill the vacancy on a temporary basis.

16.02 Information in postings

The job posting notice shall contain the following information: nature of the position, qualifications, shift, wage or salary rate or range.

16.03 Role of Seniority in Promotions, Transfers and Staff Changes

Both parties hereto recognize:

- (a) the principle of promotion within the service of the Employer; and
- (b) that job opportunities should increase in proportion to length of service.

Therefore, in making staff changes, transfers, or promotions, appointment shall be made of the applicant with the greatest seniority and having the qualifications in accordance with Article 16.01. Appointments shall be made within three (3) weeks of posting, and the position shall be filled by the successful applicant within one (1) week of appointment.

- a) A successful applicant shall be placed on trial in a new classification for a period of two (2) months or forty (40) days. Such trial promotion or transfer shall become permanent after the trial period unless:
 - (i) the employee, at any time within the trial period mentioned above, feels that she is not suitable for the position, and wishes to return to her former position; or
 - (ii) the Residence, at any time within the trial period mentioned above, feels that the employee is not suitable for the position and requires that she returns to her former position;
 - (iii) in the event of either (i) or (ii) above, the employee will return to her former position and salary without loss of seniority. Any other employee promoted or transferred as a result of the rearrangement of positions shall also be returned to her former position and salary without loss of seniority.
